WSCTC School Community,

This email confirms the first and second reported and confirmed positive student cases of COVID-19. While we are awaiting further guidance from DOH, we can currently confirm the following information found below.

tested positive on 10/30

last in school on 10/26

student 2

tested positive on 11/4

last in school on 10/27 (returned this week)

Based on these dates, we do not believe there can be any close contacts from a school perspective.

The cases were affirmed by the DOH today.

Currently, we do not believe there will be interruption to school operations.

As a precaution, the building will be professionally disinfected over the Thanksgiving Break.

Parents and families, the link below provides relevant information regarding COVID-19 and safety precautions that we can practice as a community.
